CORRESPONDENCE • KORESPONDENCJA

Stewardship Reflections. Today, we celebrate the Resurrection of Christ! Our readings today reveal how we can live out the joy of Easter all year long in our day-to-day lives. Our Gospel portrays the third day after Jesus' death when Mary of Magdala visits Jesus' tomb. Once she saw the stone removed, she ran to tell Simon Peter, and John. They also ran to the tomb, and upon seeing, they believed. We can tell much about these disciples' relationship with Jesus because of how they responded to the news about Him — they "ran." Mary didn't see the empty tomb and thought, "Someone else will figure it out." Peter and John didn't hear the news and thought, "I will check on it later." They each responded with conviction as they "ran" for Jesus. We must ask ourselves, "Do I have a relationship with Christ to the point where I am running to Him daily?" The way these disciples responded is how we should respond to Christ. We must avoid complacency, and as intentional disciples, we must stop rationalizing our choices by telling ourselves that we will someday get around to putting God first. Every moment throughout our day is an opportunity to respond to God in gratitude, compassion, and eagerness. Although there will be moments when we do not "feel" like responding to Him, it matters the most in those moments when we faithfully respond regardless of how we feel. Let us celebrate this glorious day with prayer and feasting, for Christ is risen! And let us strive to carry this Easter joy with us all year long by how we respond to Christ daily. Happy Easter!
